" 'Tis here at last, this night of nights
Sweet music, dancing, soft dimmed lights.
So laugh, and sing, all hearts be gay Recall, remember, each past school day.
Let us pause from our dancing,
remember the past,
Our share of memories, always will last.
Life's beckoning call, tomorrow
we'll meet.
But tonight we'll hear only soft dancing feet.
These are our memories
Life's Golden Years,
Our times we shared, our joys
and our fears,
This night together, will be our last,
Farewell to you
My Senior Class.

HARDING'S - CHICAGO

From Committee

The Senior Promenade

On June 12, 1959, the Taft Senior Promenade was held in the Red Lacquer Room of The Palmer House. From 9 to 12 they danced to the strains of Don Caron's band. Afterwards the seniors and their dates scattered to the various night spots in and around Chicago.

Our thanks go to Miss Marquardt for an excellent job in making the necessary preparations.
